FORTY NINER PROSPECTUS — 1966

Excitement became an identifying characteristic of the San Francisco 49ers last year, and it should be again in 1966. With the excitement may come the added factor of the team's being a contender for the NFL Western Division title.

The Forty Niners finished fourth in the West with a 7-6-1 record last year, but they led the NFL in scoring (421 points) and offense with an attack that moved effectively either running or passing.

Last year the 49ers amassed 5,270 yards in total offense, tops in the NFL. They had more first downs (292) than anybody else, they completed more passes (272) than anybody else, their quarterbacks were thrown for fewer losses than anybody else, etc.

In short, the 49er offense had a great year. That unit returns virtually intact for 1966.

The throwing arms of John Brodie, George Mira and Billy Kilmer have great receivers to aim for in Dave Parks, 1965 NFL receiving leader, veteran flanker Bernie Casey and tight end Monty Stickles.

In addition, the running back corps offers power and speed in the persons of starters John David Crow and Ken Willard and backup runners Gary Lewis and Dave Kopay. Further, all four of the ball carriers are good receivers.

So, the offense appears experienced, talented and deep.

The defense is manned by some truly outstanding players, too. Tackle Charlie Krueger, in his eighth season, is recognized as among the best in the league.

End Clark Miller, beginning his fifth season as a starter gets better every year and will be one of the best defensive linemen around this season.

And, patrolling in the defensive secondary is a man 49er coaches consider one of the most underrated—and best—defensive backs in the league, six-year veteran Jim Johnson.

Other dependable performers on defense are tackle Roland Lakes, end Karl Rubke, linebackers Mike Dowdle, Matt Hazeltine and Ed Beard, and regular backs Elbert Kimbrough and Kermit Alexander.

BY POSITIONS:

OFFENSE

Receivers: Parks and Casey two of the best anywhere, backed by another strong receiver in McFarland. Stickles counted primarily as a blocker, but can catch well. Not many jobs open, but rookies Preston Riddlehuber, converted quarterback from Georgia, is given a chance as a flanker, and big Kent Kramer, from Minnesota, has a shot at tight end.

Running Backs: "Bulls" Willard and Crow, a one-two power punch, backed by third-year men Gary Lewis and Dave Kopay, a duo only slightly less effective. Bob Daugherty, Tulsa rookie, strong first-year bidder.

Quarterbacks: Brodie coming off a great year, backed by Mira, who played very little last year, but still boasts great potential, and crafty Billy Kilmer.

Line: This will be the third year this unit is intact. Did great job last year with guards Mudd and Thomas providing much of the momentum for the running game. Veteran Bosley had his best year at center. Rock and Rohde fine tackles. Behind the vets are strong second-year guard Jim Wilson and rookie tackle prospect Dave McCormick, of LSU.

DEFENSE

Line: Tackles Krueger and Lakes strong, end Miller one of the best ones. Loss of veteran Dan Colchico through injury throws other defensive end chores to utility man Karl Rubke and number-one draft choice Stan Hindman, of Mississippi.

Backers: Great experience in the persons of Hazeltine and Dowdle, ability and size with Wilcox. Second-year man Ed Beard has great potential and revived veteran Bob Harrison offers solid depth.

Secondary: Fourth man must be found to go along with Johnson, Kimbrough and Alexander, a solid trio. Loss of Jerry Mertens threw job up for grabs to second-year men George Donnelly and Wayne Swinford and a number of rookie candidates.

No. 39 KERMIT JOSEPH ALEXANDER

Pos. DB	Born 1/4/41	Wt. 183	Ht. 5-11	School UCLA	Yrs. Pro 4	Residence Belmont, Calif.
-------------------	-----------------------	-------------------	--------------------	-----------------------	----------------------	-------------------------------------

Begins his fourth season as a regular member of the 49er defensive secondary, and his second year as the squad's chief kick return man. Led 49er pass interceptors in '63 and '64, with five interceptions each season, picked off three last year to rank second behind Jim Johnson. In three seasons has returned 76 kickoffs for 1,862 yards and a 24.5 average. Longest kickoff returns have been 48 yds. in '63, 44 yds. in '64, and 46 yds. in '65. Ranked as 29th kickoff returner in NFL in '65. Has been punt returner two seasons only with total of 56 returns for 930 yds. and a 16.6 avg., longest a 70-yd. TD return in '64. Last year's longest was 40 yds. Set 49er team record of 35 punt returns in '65, and ranked 7th in NFL. Former All-American and "MVP" at UCLA, where rated as excellent runner, blocker and tackler. Also outstanding track man in college with :09.7 time in 100-yd. dash, :21.9 in 220. Scored TD first time he handled ball as 49er when he went 90 yds. on kickoff return in pre-season game against Minnesota. Born in New Iberia, La., but grew up in Los Angeles. He and wife, Clarice, parents of daughter, Courtney Dannie (10/2/64), and son, Kelton Joseph (3/27/66). Works in the San Francisco adult probation department in the off season.

No. 50 EDWARD LEROY BEARD

Originally drafted as a tackle who weighed some 240 pounds with the University of Tennessee, reported to 49er training camp after two-year service stint weighing 217 pounds. Tried at linebacker and immediately impressed everyone. Started some games last year when regular middle backer Mike Dowdle was injured, and will probably be an early-season starter this year with Dowdle moved to right side to take over for injured Matt Hazeltine. Is considered one of the most promising new line-backing prospects in the NFL. Works with a home construction company in the off season and is an avid motorcycle fan. Born in Fredricksburg, Va.

No. 77 BRUCE LEE BOSLEY

Pos. C	Born 11/5/33	Wt. 244	Ht. 6-2	School West Virginia	Yrs. Pro 11	Residence Belmont, Calif.
------------------	------------------------	-------------------	-------------------	--------------------------------	-----------------------	-------------------------------------

Returns for 11th season of professional football now recognized as one of the better pivot men in the NFL. Was the starting center for the West in last season's Pro Bowl. Has played guard as a professional and broke in as a defensive end. Was 49ers' number two draft choice after earning All-American honors as a tackle at West Virginia in 1955. Was a four-yr. letterman fullback in Green Bank, W. Va. Also earned four basketball and two baseball letters in high school. Recently completed refurbishing an old carriage house in Belmont, down the peninsula from San Francisco, and making it into his family home, already recognized as an area show-place. Born in Fresno, Calif.

No. 12 JOHN RILEY BRODIE

Pos. QB	Born 8/14/35	Wt. 210	Ht. 6-1	School Stanford	Yrs. Pro 10	Residence Atherton, Calif.
-------------------	------------------------	-------------------	-------------------	---------------------------	-----------------------	--------------------------------------

Returns after having his greatest year in 1965, a season in which he became the NFL's most prolific and productive passer. Completed 242 passes (for an NFL and 49er single-season record) of 391 attempts (49er record) for 3,112 yds. (49er record) and 30 TDs (49er record). Also tied 49er single-game record with five TD passes against Minnesota at Minneapolis. Won the Len Eshmont Award (49er award voted to him by his teammates at end of the season) and was the starting QB for the West in the Pro Bowl. First draft choice in 1957 after singular career at Stanford in which he broke all records set by another great 49er, Frankie Albert. Rookie debut in '57 highlighted by a last-second TD pass to beat Baltimore. Unanimous All-America choice at Stanford in 1956 and received Coffman Award as MVP in East-West Classic. Born in San Francisco and attended Oakland Technical High School. Is off-season insurance executive and radio sportscaster. High rated amateur golfer. He and wife, Susan, are parents of a son, William Aloysius (3/24/64), and three daughters, Kelly (11/25/57), Cammie (2/26/60), and Diane (5/23/62).

No. 84 VERNON GENE BURKE

Pos. TE	Born 4/30/41	Wt. 212	Ht. 6-4	School Oregon State	Yrs. Pro 3	Residence Bakersfield, Calif.
-------------------	------------------------	-------------------	-------------------	-------------------------------	----------------------	-----------------------------------------

Came back from a serious knee injury in 1964 to stick with the club in 1965 as a surprisingly effective tight end. Played very little last year, but was responsible for the last-minute TD reception that enabled the 49ers to tie Green Bay in the final game of the season. Drafted as a "red shirt" in the fifth round in 1962, Burke went on to earn All-America honors at Oregon State in 1963 and was chosen Most Valuable Lineman in Shrine East-West game. Then injured his knee in pre-season game and saw no 1964 action at all. Was named "Outstanding Player" in the Junior Rose Bowl in 1959 when he played for Bakersfield JC, for which he was also named All-American. Was a first-team selection on no less than seven different All-American teams in 1963. Works as an automobile salesman in the off season. Born in San Luis Obispo, Calif.

No. 30 BERNARD CASEY

Pos. FL	Born 6/9/39	Wt. 212	Ht. 6-4	School Bowling Green	Yrs. Pro 6	Residence Bowling Green, O.
-------------------	-----------------------	-------------------	-------------------	--------------------------------	----------------------	---------------------------------------

Led 49ers in pass receiving in '63 and '64 and ranked second last year with a personal single-season high of 59 receptions (had 58 in '64) for 765 yards and eight TDs. Ranked fifth in the NFL last season. An established professional star recognized as one of the NFL's premier receivers. An accomplished artist who has had showings in San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Ohio, Casey paints and teaches art classes at Bowling Green, from which he earned a Master's degree. Possesses great hands and speed. Speed indicated by the fact that he ran a :14.0 set of high hurdles in the 1960 Olympic Trials. Attended East High School in home town of Columbus, Ohio. Wyako, W. Va., is his birthplace.

No. 57 THOMAS FLOYD DEAN

Pos.	Born	Wt.	Ht.	School	Yrs. Pro	Residence
LB-DE	8/19/40	236	6-4	Florida	4	San Mateo, Calif.

A knee injury in the College All-Star Game of 1963 and a subsequent re-injury in a 49er pre-season game that same year, got Dean's professional career off to a slow start. He saw no action in the 1963 season, very little in 1964, but a little more in 1965. Can operate at defensive end or linebacker. Was an All-Conference end at the University of Florida. Comes from Eagle Lake, Fla., a community of around 400 people. Not married.

No. 20 GEORGE DONNELLY

Pos.	Born	Wt.	Ht.	School	Yrs. Pro	Residence
DB	9/4/42	201	6-3	Illinois	2	DeKalb, Ill.

Finished the latter part of his rookie year in 1965 as starting defensive safety after being a first-round draft choice prior to the season. Member of Illinois' Big Ten and Rose Bowl championship team. Intercepted two passes in Rose Bowl game which set up TD for the Illini. Was All-Big Ten and All-American on some selections as a senior. In addition to football honors in college, was honored by both the House and Senate of the Illinois legislature by special resolutions recognizing his work with youth organizations. Was a high school All-American at DeKalb High School. Once scored all 21 points in a 21-20 DeKalb come-from-behind victory. Is in graduate study in Mathematics Education at Northern Illinois University in DeKalb in the off-season. Married, wife's name is Jamie.

No. 53 DON MICHAEL DOWDLE

Pos.	Born	Wt.	Ht.	School	Yrs. Pro	Residence
LB	12/6/37	240	6-3	Texas	7	Dallas, Tex.

Has been regular 49er middle linebacker for three years after coming to the 49ers in the spring of 1963 in trade for defensive back Jim Ridlon, since retired. This year added the skills of the right side backer to his repertoire after it appeared Matt Hazeltine might not be ready to go in the early season. Originally drafted by the 49ers as an offensive fullback, but sent to Dallas in 1961. All-Southwest Conference at Texas and also was on track team as shot putter and discus and javelin thrower. All-State prep player at Graham, Tex., High School. Born in Eliasville, Tex. Has two children, son Mike, Jr., 5, and daughter Kimberly Ann, 2. Is a stock broker in Dallas in the off season.

No. 54 ROBERT LUCIUS HARRISON, JR.

Pos.	Born	Wt.	Ht.	School	Yrs. Pro	Residence
LB	8/8/37	228	6-2	Oklahoma	8	Stamford, Tex.

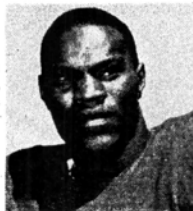

Returned to the 49ers about mid-season last year when injury had felled both Matt Hazeltine and Mike Dowdle. Has been with 49ers three seasons (1959-61) before being traded to Philadelphia in 1962. Was All-Conference and All-America for Coach Bud Wilkinson at Oklahoma. Is a farmer and rancher in Stamford, Tex., in the off season. He and wife, Barbara, became parents of their first child, son Robert Scott, last February. Bob was also born in Stamford.

No. 55 MATTHEW EMORY HAZELTINE

Pos.	Born	Wt.	Ht.	School	Yrs. Pro	Residence
LB	8/2/33	230	6-1	California	12	Los Altos, Calif.

Oldest 49er player both in actual age and time of service. Is currently in his 12th season. Although long considered by 49er partisans as one of the most underrated linebackers in the NFL, has had an outstanding career marked by two appearances in the Pro Bowl (1963 and 1965) and five years as 49er team captain. Was 49er fourth draft choice after senior year at California, where he was an All-American linebacker and center for Pappy Waldorf, now director of 49er player personnel. Matt's father was also a football star at Cal. Has varied interests in insurance and dry cleaning in the off season.

No. 37 JAMES EARL JOHNSON

Pos.	Born	Wt.	Ht.	School	Yrs. Pro	Residence
DB	3/31/38	187	6-2	UCLA	6	Los Angeles, Calif.

Led 49er defense in pass interceptions last year with six, bringing his total in four years as a starting member of the 49er secondary to 16 interceptions returned for 264 yards. Coaching staff considers Jim one of the best defensive backs in the NFL. Broke in as a rookie defender and intercepted five passes and returned them 116 yards. Switched to offense the following year, wound up as second-leading receiver with 34 receptions for 627 yards and four TDs. Has been defensive regular 1963-64-65. Was fine collegiate football player and track man at UCLA, ran a 13.9 flight of high hurdles and broad jumped 25 feet. Operates youth recreation programs and camps in the off season. Not married. Born in Dallas, Tex.

No. 17 WILLIAM ORLAND KILMER

Pos.	Born	Wt.	Ht.	School	Yrs. Pro	Residence
QB	9/5/39	204	6-0	UCLA	5	San Francisco

Kilmer will go into his second straight season strictly as a quarterback. A serious automobile accident suffered just after the 1962 season forced him out of the 1963 campaign and left his once considerable running talent diminished. His knowledge and "feel" for football are considered excellent and he is reckoned a valuable 49er, although he didn't play a moment in a 1965 league game. Before the auto accident, Kilmer was the triggerman of 49ers' celebrated "shotgun" offense. As a collegian, led the nation in total offense in 1960 when he totaled 1,086 yds. passing and 803 rushing. Named to most All-America teams that year. Born in Topeka, Kans.

No. 45 ELBERT LEON KIMBROUGH

Pos.	Born	Wt.	Ht.	School	Yrs. Pro	Residence
DB	3/24/38	194	5-11	Northwestern	6	Oakland, Calif.

Kimbrough begins his third season as a starting member of the 49er defensive backfield after coming to the team in a trade with the Rams for Lou Cordelean. Was Rams' second draft choice in 1961. Is only 49er player with his own fan club active at the Kezar games. Group waits for him outside of the dressing room after the battle. In three years has intercepted six passes, returned them 53 yds. Was leading pass receiver in the Big 10, an All-Conference selection and a second unit All-American senior year at Northwestern. Played in East-West Shrine game. Has a twin brother named Albert who played on the same Galesburg, Ill., high school teams and at Northwestern. Works for Standard Oil in the off season.

No. 43 DAVID MARQUETTE KOPAY

Pos.	Born	Wt.	Ht.	School	Yrs. Pro	Residence
RB	6/28/42	218	6-0	Washington	3	Shrnn Oaks, Calif.

Power runner and reliable pass receiver, who, as a rookie free agent in 1964, led 49er ground gainers with 271 yds. Last year, as chief replacement for John David Crow, played less but better. Dependable blocker. Captained the Washington team in the 1963 season and in the Rose Bowl against Illinois. Still going to school in the off season. Unmarried. Was born in Chicago, Ill.

Was number three offensive guard his rookie season last year. Extremely strong and moves well. He earned only one varsity letter at Georgia, but was impressive enough to be chosen to play in the College All-Star game after his senior year. Was drafted as a "future" by the 49ers. Played high school fullback at Edgewood High in Pittsburgh, Pa. Also played high school basketball. Born in Pittsburgh. Married and he and wife, Lonita, are parents of two children, son James Milligan, Jr. (3/4/65), and a daughter born just after training camp opened this year. Jim is an insurance salesman in Athens, Ga., in the off season.

FORTY NINER COACHES

JACK CHRISTIANSEN

Head Coach

Even though he hasn't played since the 1958 season, 49er Head Coach Jack Christiansen is still recognized as one of the best defensive backs the National Football League has ever known.

And, after a little less than three seasons as San Francisco's coaching leader, he has established himself as one of the foremost young men in the NFL's coaching ranks.

Chris will be in his fourth season as 49er head coach after being named interim coach on Sept. 30, 1963, and taking over the top job on a permanent basis prior to the 1964 season.

Chris has spent his entire NFL career with just two teams. Eight playing years (1951-1958) were with the Detroit Lions, and he has been a member of the 49er coaching staff since 1959.

He was the Lions' sixth draft choice in 1951 and soon justified the club's selection by becoming an All-Pro selection in his second year. All told, he was named All-Pro in six of his eight seasons and participated in five consecutive Pro Bowl games.

Statistically, as leader of the famed "Chris's Crew," Detroit's tough defensive secondary (which also included Jim David, now a 49er assistant), Chris totaled 46 interceptions for 717 yards and three TDs; 85 punt returns for 1,184 yards and eight TDs, and 59 kickoff returns for 1,429 yards. He still holds all NFL records for scoring on punt returns.

Prior to joining the Lions, Chris was an outstanding football player and sprinter at Colorado State University.

BILL JOHNSON

Assistant Coach

San Francisco fans who followed the nine-year playing career of Bill (Tiger) Johnson, always rated him among the top centers in the game. Their confidence was justified when he was named on the All-Time Pro Bowl team by the Helms Athletic Foundation.

Bill was captain of the Tyler, Texas, Junior College team that won the national title, plus the Little Rose Bowl classic in 1947. These honors followed almost three years in the Pacific with the Navy.

Signed by the 49ers primarily as a linebacker in 1948, he played very little as a rookie because of a broken wrist. But he took over the following season at offensive center and provided much of the blocking that made the 49ers noted as pro football's strongest running club in the early 1950's.

FORTY NINER COACHES

DICK VORIS

Assistant Coach

Beginning his fourth campaign with the 49ers is Dick Voris, who joined the staff after two years as Director of Player Personnel and Assistant Coach with the Green Bay Packers.

Voris, a graduate of San Jose State, was an outstanding center and linebacker at Santa Cruz High, Hartnell Junior College and San Jose.

His coaching career started on the high school level. He returned to Hartnell as head coach for two seasons (1952 and '53), his teams going undefeated in 21 games. He was line coach of the Los Angeles Rams in 1954 and in 1955 joined Earl Blaik's staff at West Point as line coach and chief assistant. He was a third year member of the Army staff when he resigned to become head coach at Virginia. He left Virginia in 1961 to join the Packers.

BILLY WILSON

Assistant Coach

Billy Wilson rejoined the staff in the spring of 1964 as offensive end coach and the return was immediately hailed by 49er fans.

In slightly more than nine years of National Football League history, Billy engraved his name deeply into gridiron records. His nine full seasons, plus four games in 1960, show a total of 407 pass receptions, one of the great marks of its kind in the NFL.

Drafted by the 49ers in 1950 as a 21st "redshirt" choice, he joined the club in 1951 and immediately gained a place among the NFL's leading receivers. He tied for the pass receiving crown in 1955 with 53, then led in 1956 with 60 and again in 1957 with 57.

Billy, who has Sac and Fox Indian blood, was born on a reservation near Sayre, Okla. He grew up in Campbell, Calif., and served three years in the Navy before enrolling at San Jose State where he was an All-Coast performer in both football and basketball.

A perennial All-Pro choice, his biggest thrill was being named the Most Valuable Player in the Pro Bowl in 1955. Billy and his wife, Shirley, live in Campbell with their four children—William Wynn, 12; Greg, 9; Holly, 7; and Tracy Marie, 3.

FORTY NINER COACHES

JIM DAVID

Assistant Coach

Jim David, a teammate of Jack Christiansen on the famed Detroit Lions clubs of the mid '50s, was selected by Chris in 1964 as the 49ers' defensive backfield coach.

Jim came to the 49ers from the Los Angeles Rams where he first served as defensive backfield coach under Bob Waterfield and then as a college talent scout.

A member of the great "Chris' Crew," Detroit's defensive backfield that featured Yale Lary and Bob Smith (and Karl Karilivacz for two years) in addition to Chris, David was six times selected for the West's Pro Bowl squad, and played on four Western Division championship Lion teams, three of which won the World Title.

Jim, 38, also was a Colorado State teammate of Chris.

During his eight seasons with the Lions (1952-59), David intercepted 36 passes and was an all-out, tenacious competitor.

Y. A. TITTLE

Assistant Coach

Y. A. Tittle, one of the game's magic names, remains a part of professional football, despite his retirement as an active player, by working with the San Francisco 49ers in an advisory capacity as a part-time coach.

Tittle, recognized as one of the best quarterbacks ever to play in the National Football League, does special work for Head Coach Jack Christiansen with the 49er quarterbacks. He also sits in on offensive planning sessions and works with Billy Wilson on the press box phones.

Actually, Y. A. rejoined the team with which he spent most of his National Football League career. The former LSU star played 10 of his 18 active seasons in 49er livery before his final four years with the New York Giants.

When he retired after the 1964 season, Tittle had thrown 3,817 passes, completed 2,118 of them for 212 touchdowns and 28,339 yards, more than 16 miles in yardage. He also has a career pass completion average of an amazing 55.4 per cent.

Tittle was NFL "Player of the Year" in 1957 after leading the 49ers to a tie for the Western Division title, and won the same honor again in 1961 and 1963 as he took the Giants to Eastern Division championships.

FORTY NINER TALENT CHIEFS

LYNN O. WALDORF

Director of Personnel

A former president of the American Football Coaches Association and one of the most respected men in sports, Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf joined the 49er organization in 1957. Since then, he has built up a talent-scouting force second to none. His efforts have been responsible for many new faces on the San Francisco roster in the past four years and the 1964 crop of newcomers is rated among the finest in the club's history.

A tackle at Syracuse University in the early 1920's, he coached at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma State, Kansas State and Northwestern before taking over what he termed the "Sleeping Giant" at the University of California in 1947. Under his tutelage, the Golden Bears won three consecutive Pacific Coast Conference titles—1948-49-50—and represented the West in the annual Rose Bowl classic at Pasadena. His 10-year record at California was 66 wins, 32 losses and four ties.

Pappy was recently elected to the National Foundation Football Hall of Fame and will be officially inducted in ceremonies in New York in December.

One of the nation's top after-dinner speakers, Pappy is especially noted for his limitless supply of limericks. He and his wife, Louise, live in Berkeley. They have two daughters and five grandchildren.

JACK WHITE

Director of Scouting

Jack White serves the 49er talent hunting staff as full-time director of scouting this year after having served the squad in a part-time capacity for many years.

Although employed fulltime as Director of Personnel for the New York Yankees, White served as part-time 49er talent scout from 1951, concentrating his efforts in the East and South.

Many of the current 49ers were signed by Jack prior to his joining the club full time. One of the best known in the sports talent field, Jack served football before baseball, having been an assistant coach with the old New York Football Yankees.

With the Baseball Yankees, Jack served in varied capacities that ranged from ticket manager for the parent club to general manager of a minor league team in the Yankee organization.

TWO IMPORTANT FORTY NINERS

LINCOLN KIMURA

Trainer

Kimura began as a student assistant trainer at San Jose State in 1946 while an undergraduate. He earned his AB degree in 1948 and became the school's first full-time trainer, a job he held until joining the 49ers full time.

Linc, who also holds a Master's degree in education from Stanford, is a charter member and former president of the Pacific Coast Trainers Association. He has been secretary-treasurer of the organization since 1955, and holds several committee appointments in the National Athletic Trainers Association.

CHICO NORTON

Equipment Manager

He also works for the San Francisco Giants stadium maintenance crew at Candlestick Park, putting in half a season with the Giants before serving the 49ers full season.

Chico first entered professional athletics when he went to work for the San Francisco Seals baseball team in 1948.

His real first name is Forrest, the Chico coming from his home town of Chico, Calif. Norton now lives in San Francisco.

ESHMONT MEMORIAL AWARD—A secret ballot by 49er players the night before the last game of the season determines the winner of the Len Eshmont Memorial Award—a $1,000 watch. Len, a Fordham graduate, was a member of the first 49er squad in 1946. He coached at the Naval Academy and the University of Virginia before his untimely death in May, 1957.

THE 49ER STORY — 1946-1966

From a modest beginning in 1946, the San Francisco 49ers have grown into one of the most flourishing franchises in professional sports.

A major league football franchise in the City by the Golden Gate had long been the cherished dream of Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito, a native son and 1931 graduate of the University of Santa Clara. Failing to win recognition from the National League, Tony turned to the All-America Conference, which began operations in 1946 with the late Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, as the guiding genius.

Although the AAC went under after four years of intense competition with the NFL, it proved Morabito's point that San Francisco was a major league city. Sports fans of the entire Bay Area took the 49ers to their hearts and attendance grew by the proverbial leaps and bounds.

The club's success was predicated on Tony's oft-repeated slogan of "Go first class or not at all," and his early organization was built around such honored names as Lawrence T. (Buck) Shaw, head coach; and Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee, Alyn Beals, Johnny Strzykowski and Len Eshmont—all of whom were already top drawing cards in collegiate and pro football.

The 49ers were the perennial runners-up to the mighty Cleveland Browns throughout the history of the AAC and, masterminded by Shaw on the bench and Albert on the field, became noted nationally for daring, colorful football. The AAC ended its short but exciting life when the Browns defeated the 49ers, 21-7, in the championship game of 1949, San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore became members of the NFL.

After 15 years of slam-bang battling in the NFL, the 49ers have yet to win even a divisional championship. They've come close, tying Detroit for seasonal honors in 1957 but dropping the playoff. But in every season except seven—1950-55-56-58-62-63-64—the San Franciscans have been in the thick of the title fight.

49ER STORY (Con't)

1950—The 49ers fell flat on their faces in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951—In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race to the final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by Hardy Brown and his famed "shoulder tackle," the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Y. A. Tittle and Billy Wilson began their great careers.

1952—After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in midseason. It can't be written off as unsuccessful for Hugh (The King) McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become "Player of the Year" and the most feared runner in football.

1953—The 49ers had their best NFL showing, 9-3, normally good enough for a championship. But Detroit was 10-2. Two of the San Francisco losses came with Tittle benched because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. Joe (Jet) Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954—Early momentum was broken by injuries to key players such as Tittle, McElhenny, and Joe Perry. Perry gained more than 1,000 yards again, the first man ever to achieve this distinction.

1955—With McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second worst season in history under Norman P. Strader who succeeded Shaw as head coach.

1956—In Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were bogged in last place at midseason with a 1-6 record. They won four and tied one of their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957—This undoubtedly was the most emotional and dramatic season in 49er history. Every game was a "Cliffhanger" and the "Alley-Oop" pass from Tittle to rookie R. C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing, 17-7, the 49ers fought back for their greatest victory of all time, 21-17. The magnificent Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, although they held a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958—An up-and-down season which finished on a high note when Green Bay and Baltimore were defeated in the last two games. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacerations at the hands of Los Angeles and Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959—With Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. J. D. Smith, converted from a defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960—Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his Shotgun attack and the club captured four of the last five games to finish in a tie for second place. Third-string quarterback Bobby Watres threw the passes that upset Baltimore, 30-22, in the final two minutes.

1961—The success of Hickey's Shotgun amazed the football world, especially the 49-0 victory over Detroit. Quarterback Bill Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the Shotgun was stopped, Brodie took over again in the T and had the finest season in 49er q.b. annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 must remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49er history.

1962—For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished the frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at home, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963—Injuries in multitude to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 league season. One of the victories, however, was a smashing 20-14 upset of ultimate World Champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964—Once again injury to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season, although they were "in" virtually every game until the final moments. Defense came along in the second half of the season so well that the 49ers were considered one of the better defensive teams in the league at year's end. Outstanding rookie performances by end Dave Parks, quarterback George Mira and linebacker Dave Wilcox also helped take some of the sting from the 4-10 over-all record.

1965—Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie Ken Willard and veteran John David Crow, acquired in an off-season trade, led a strong ground game. The over-all record was 7-6-1 and the season-opening 52-24 beating of the Chicago Bears marked the largest number of points ever scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

49ER BAND AND HALF-TIME SHOWS

The colorful San Francisco 49er band came into existence just two years after the 49ers themselves began operations. Joe McTigue, the man who is still their leader today, organized the 49er bandsmen in 1948 from the ranks of the many outstanding professional musicians in the Bay Area.

McTigue is also in charge of arranging half-time shows put on during the regular 49er season in Kezar Stadium by organizations other than his own 50-piece band.

- Sept. 11 (Minnesota): A Lacrosse exhibition by top Bay Area teams.
- Oct. 9 (Green Bay): The Boise High School Band.
- Oct. 23 (Detroit): The annual state Pompon Rally.
- Nov. 6 (Los Angeles): University of Nevada Band.
- Nov. 20 (Philadelphia): Sacramento College Band and annual area finals of Punt, Pass and Kick Competition.
- Dec. 11 (Chicago): Medford, Ore., High School Band.
- Dec. 18 (Baltimore): Redwood Rockettes and performance arranged by the National Physical Fitness organization.

49ER TELEVISION AND RADIO

BOB FOUTS

GORDY SOLTAU

Bob Fouts and Gordy Soltau are once again handling the television narration of all San Francisco 49er football games. Fouts is currently in his 12th season as television voice of the 49ers, while Soltau, former great 49er end, is in his 8th year as "color" announcer for the telecasts.

LON SIMMONS

RUSS HODGES

Veteran sportscasters Lon Simmons and Russ Hodges form the radio broadcasting team for the 49ers, originating from KSFO, San Francisco, and serving a 17-station network. Other stations carrying 49er games are KFBK, Sacramento; KSWB, Salinas; KMJ, Fresno; KBEE, Modesto; KOH, Reno; KVCV, Redding; KINS, Eureka; KHSL, Chico; KWSD, Mt. Shasta; KSUE, Susanville; KSYC, Yreka; KUKI, Ukiah; KTHO, Bijou; KGU, Honolulu; KUAM, Guam.
